

Motivic Height Zeta Functions

David Bourqui (University of Rennes I)

I will discuss a motivic version of height zeta functions, how to deal with them in the case of toric varieties and their expected properties for more general varieties.