

Title: Height zeta functions

Speaker : Yuri Tschinkel (Goettingen and Courant Institute)

Height zeta functions were introduced by Arakelov in his study of zero cycles on curves. Recently, they have been used in investigations of rational points on higher dimensional varieties. I will explain some connections to representation theory, p-adic integration and prehomogeneous spaces.